When you live alone

there's no one to pass
a cat's cradle to.

When you live alone

you can have the
waterbed to yourself.

When you live alone

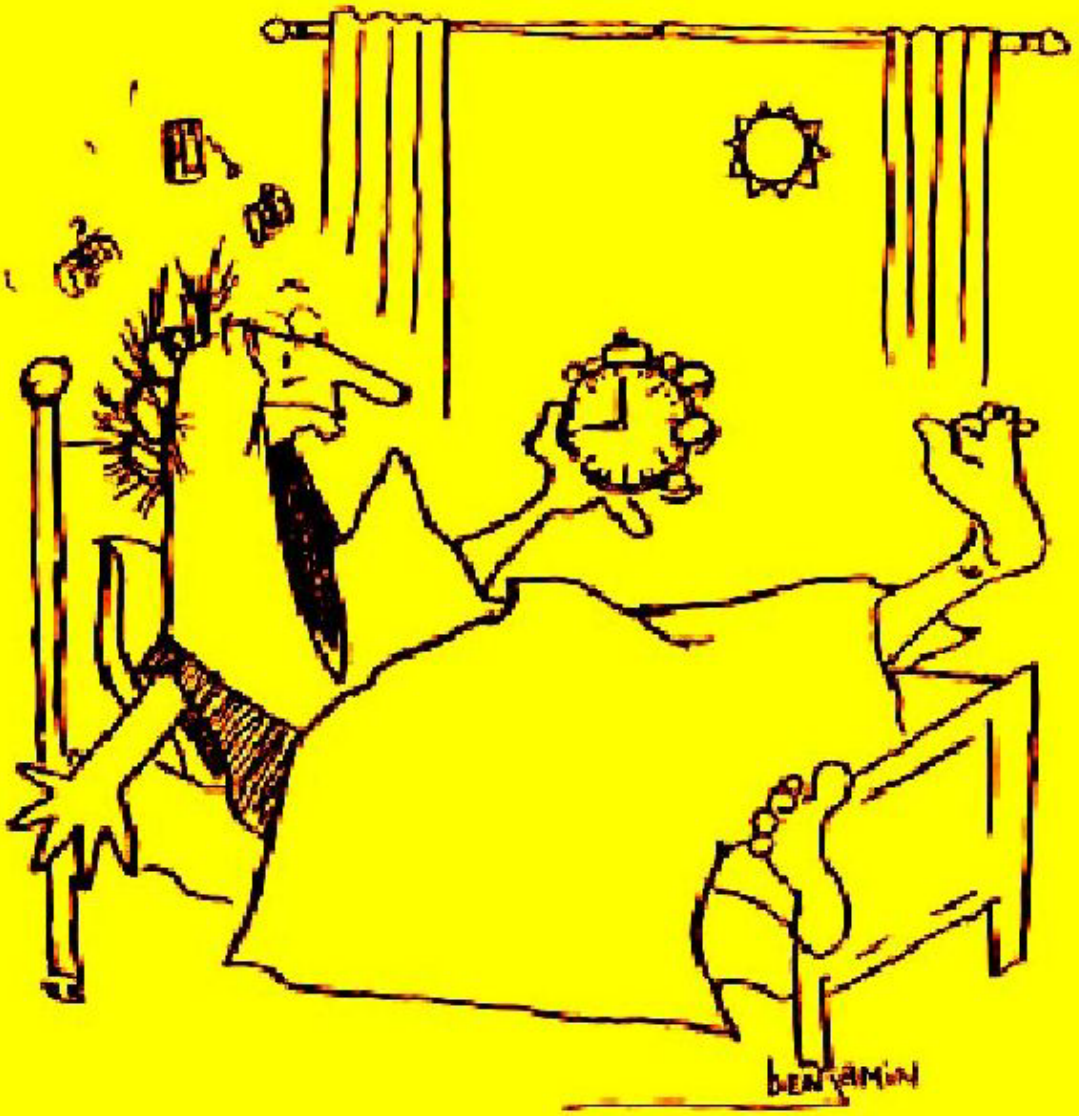

you can get by for three months with one bar of soap.

When you live alone

you can find your toothbrush.

When you live alone

there's nobody to blame
when you oversleep.

When you live alone

you can sing OUTSIDE the shower.

When you live alone

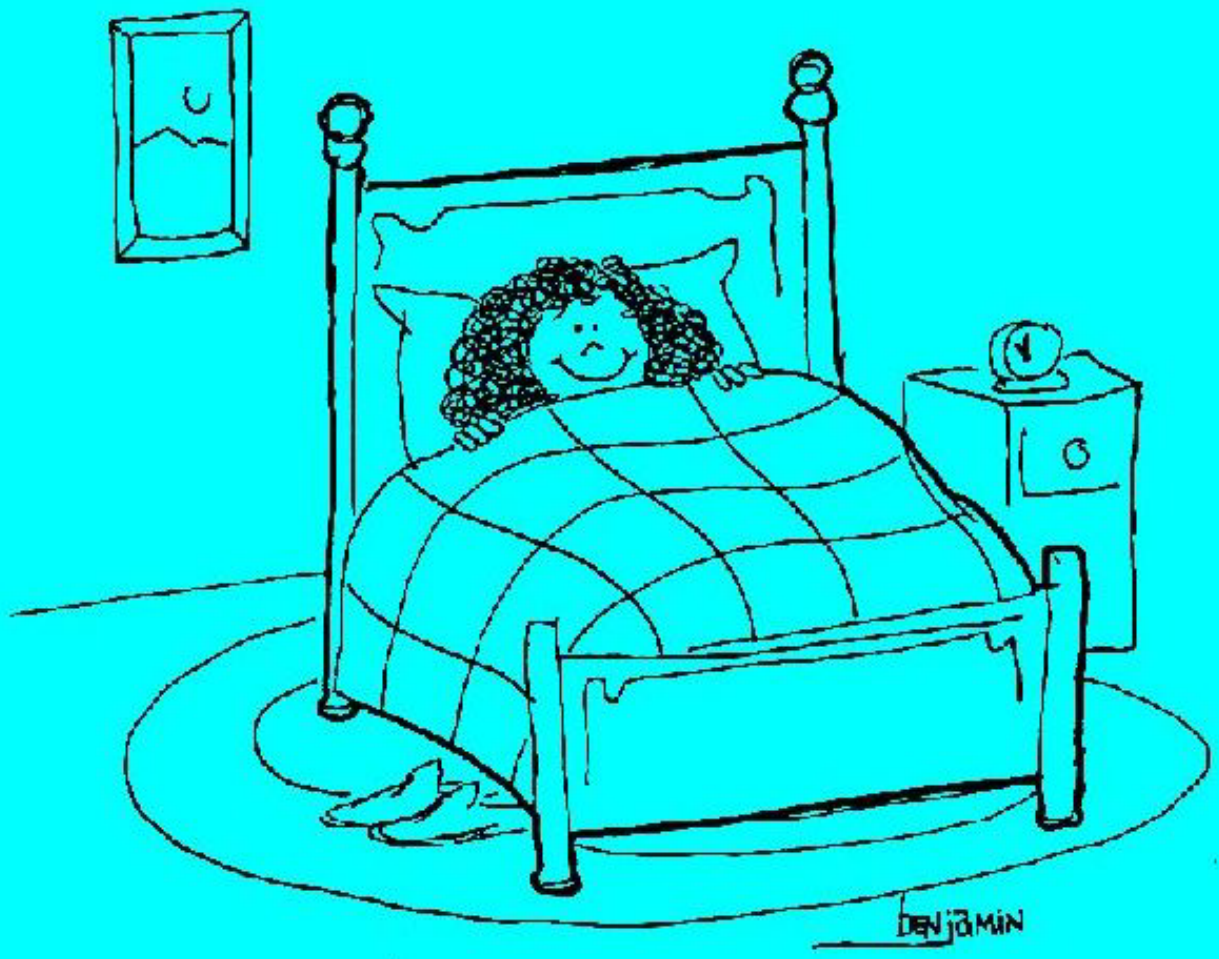

you make faces
in the mirror.

When you live alone

you clean up when
you feel like it.

When you live alone

it's quiet.

When you live alone

you don't have to wait
for the funnies.

When you live alone

the bathroom is always free.

When you live alone

you always get stuck
with the laundry.

When you live alone

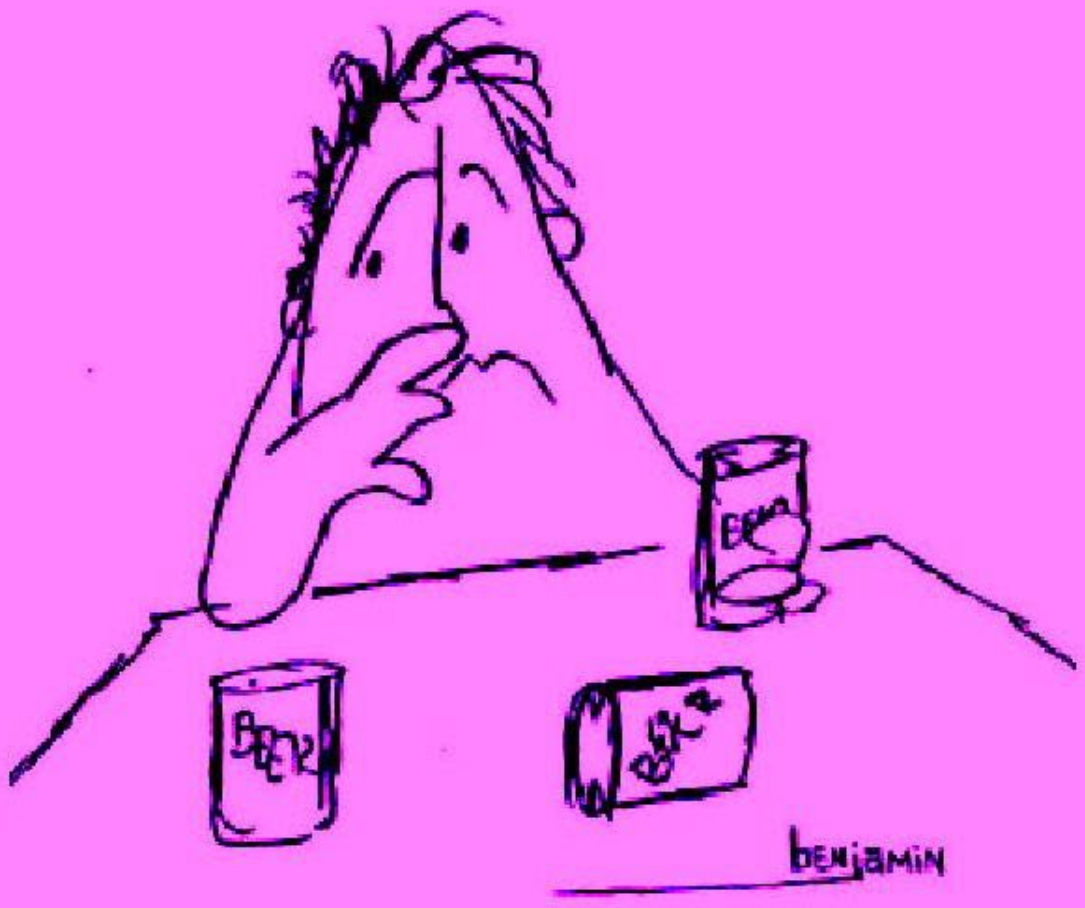

you can splurge for supper.

When you live alone

you make your own music.

When you live alone

you can burp without saying 'excuse me.'

When you live alone

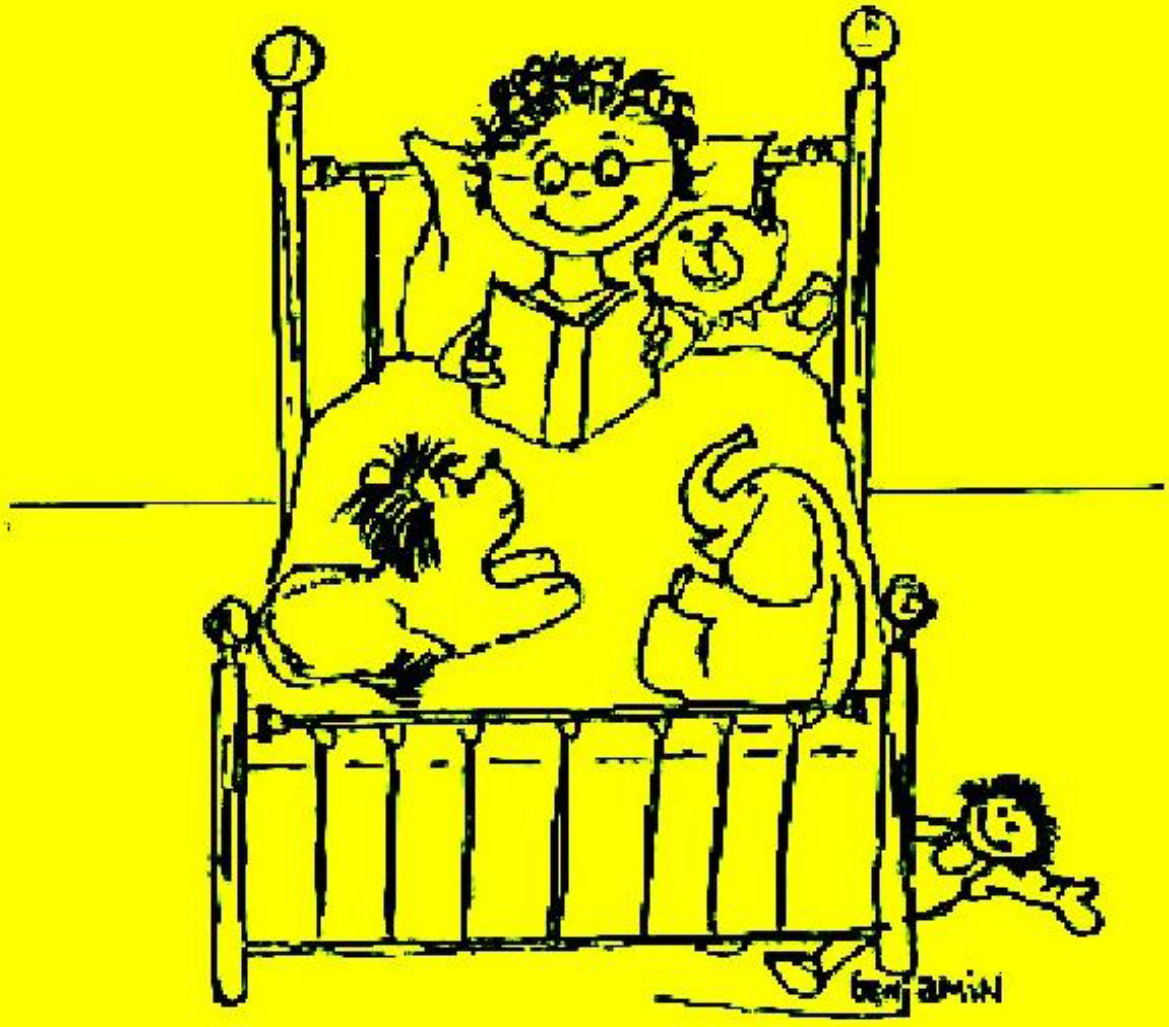

you wash

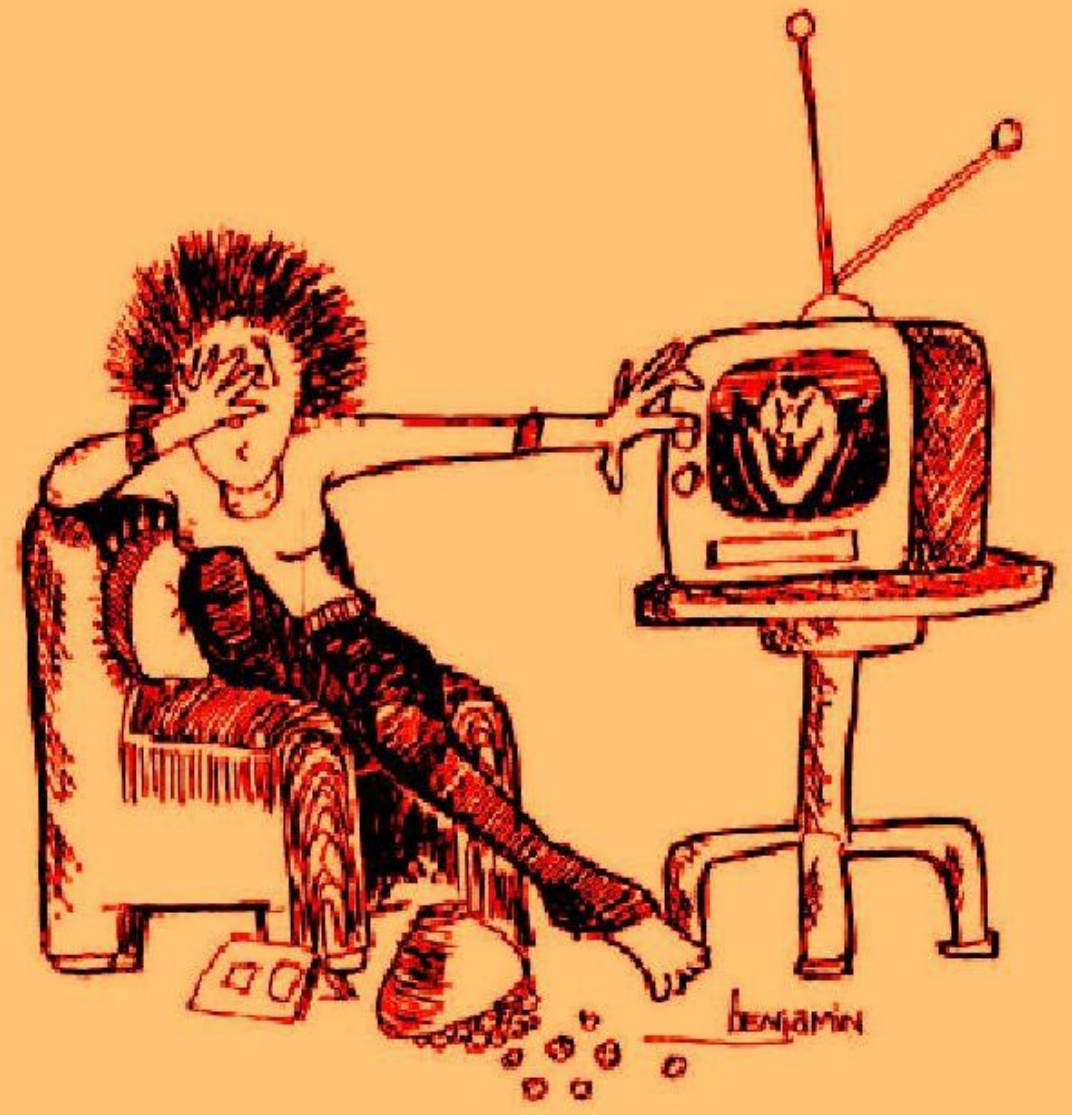

and you also dry.

When you live alone

you know who your friends are.

When you live alone

you can change the channel.

When you live alone

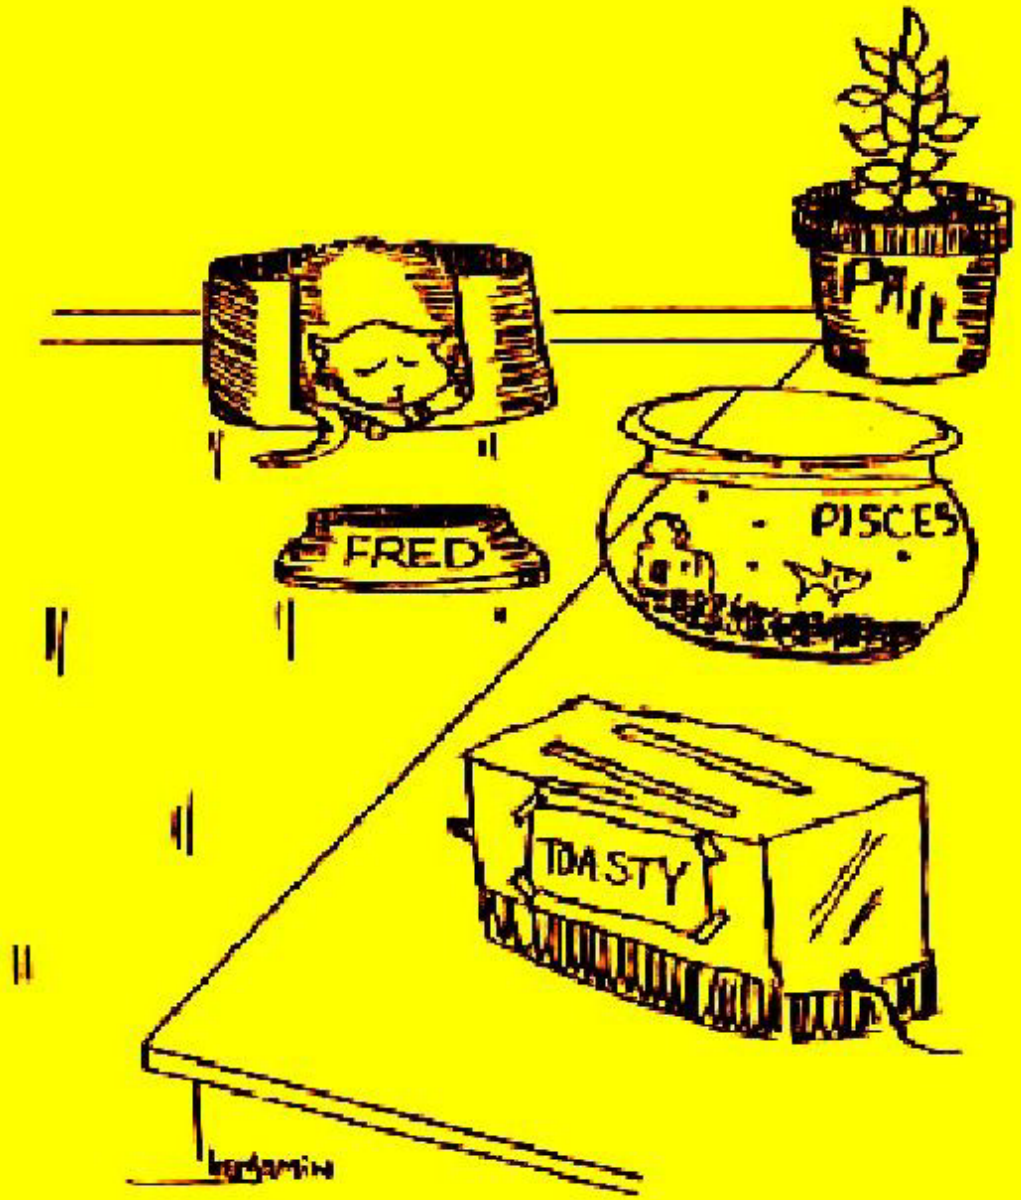

you shop without a cart.

When you live alone

you can REALLY
get into a book.

When you live alone

EVERYTHING has a name.

When you live alone

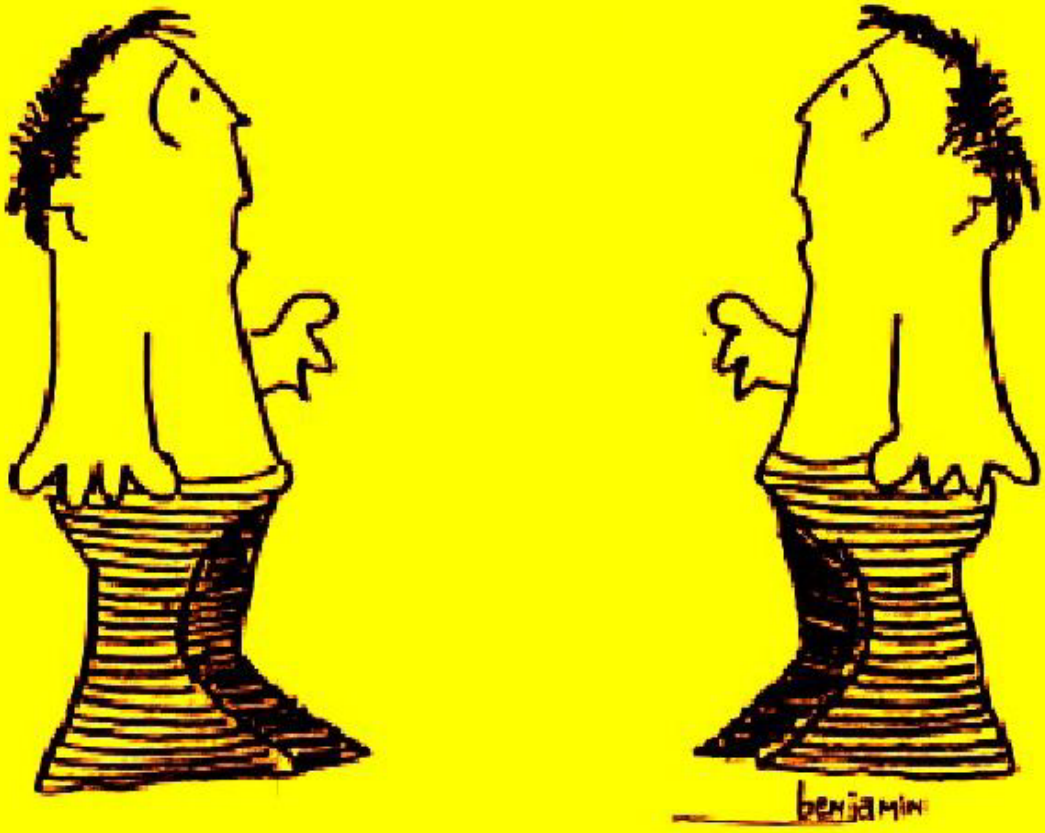

you misplace your key.

When you live alone

you eat a lot of tuna fish.

When you live alone

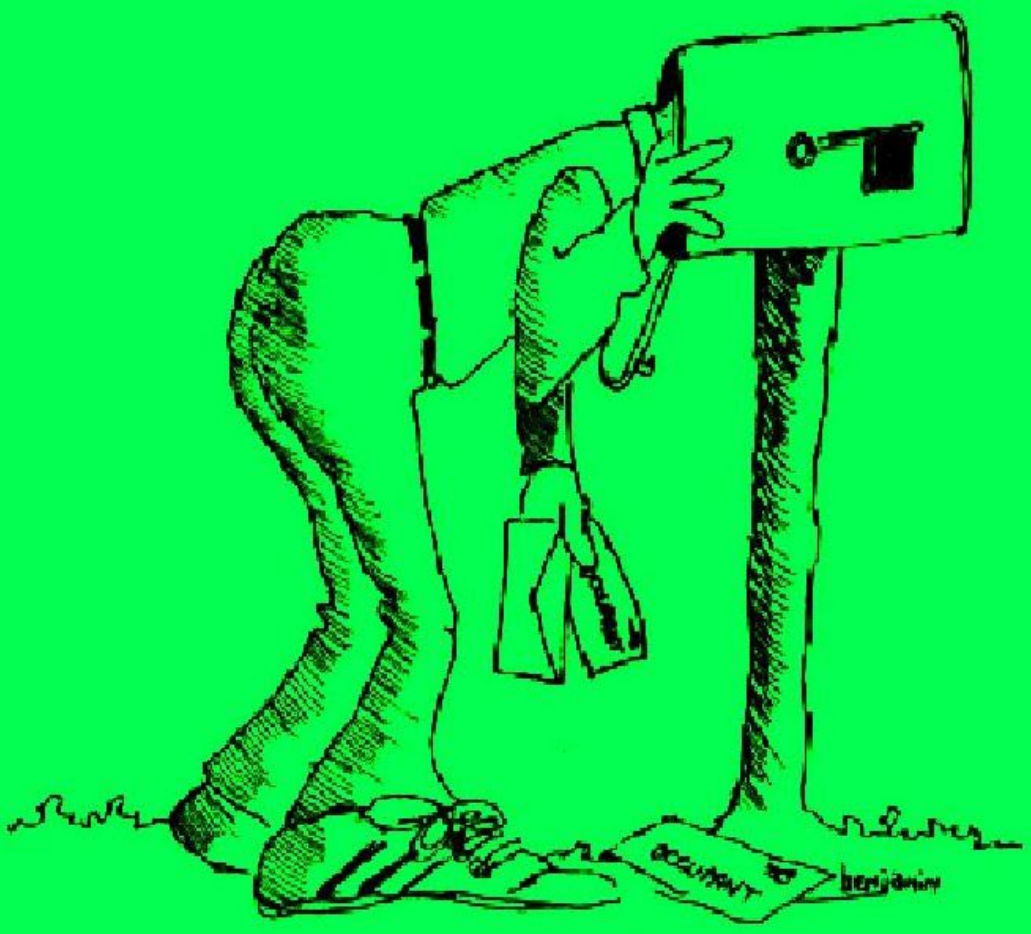

you talk to yourself.

When you live alone

your pets don't exhibit divided loyalties.

When you live alone

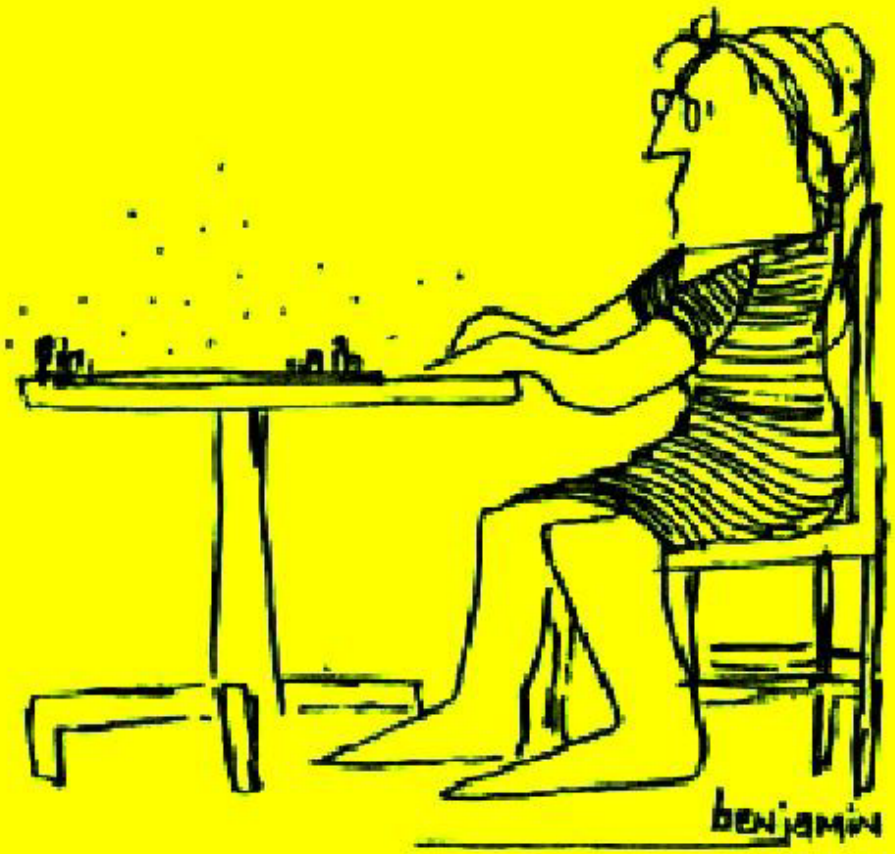

you check the mailbox twice.

When you live alone

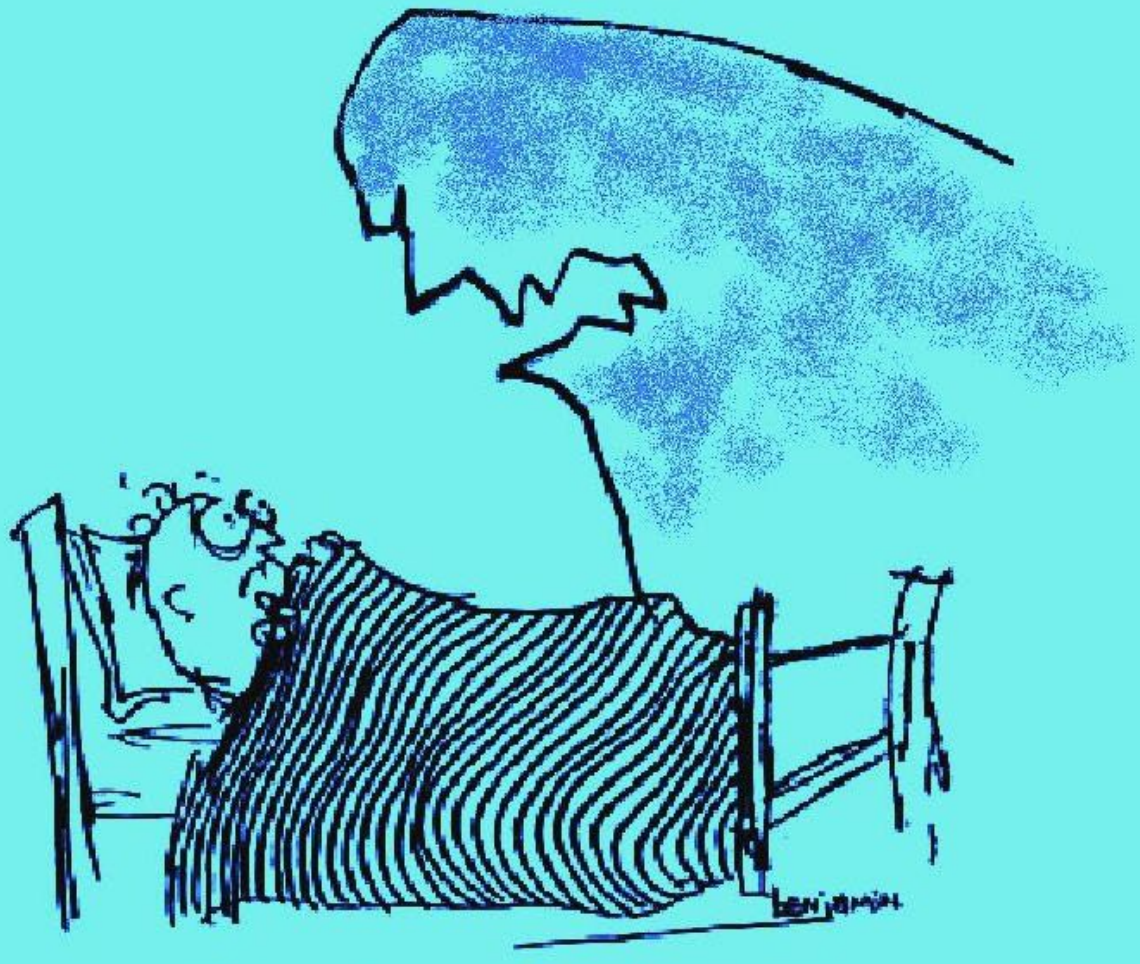

your buttons fall off.

When you live alone

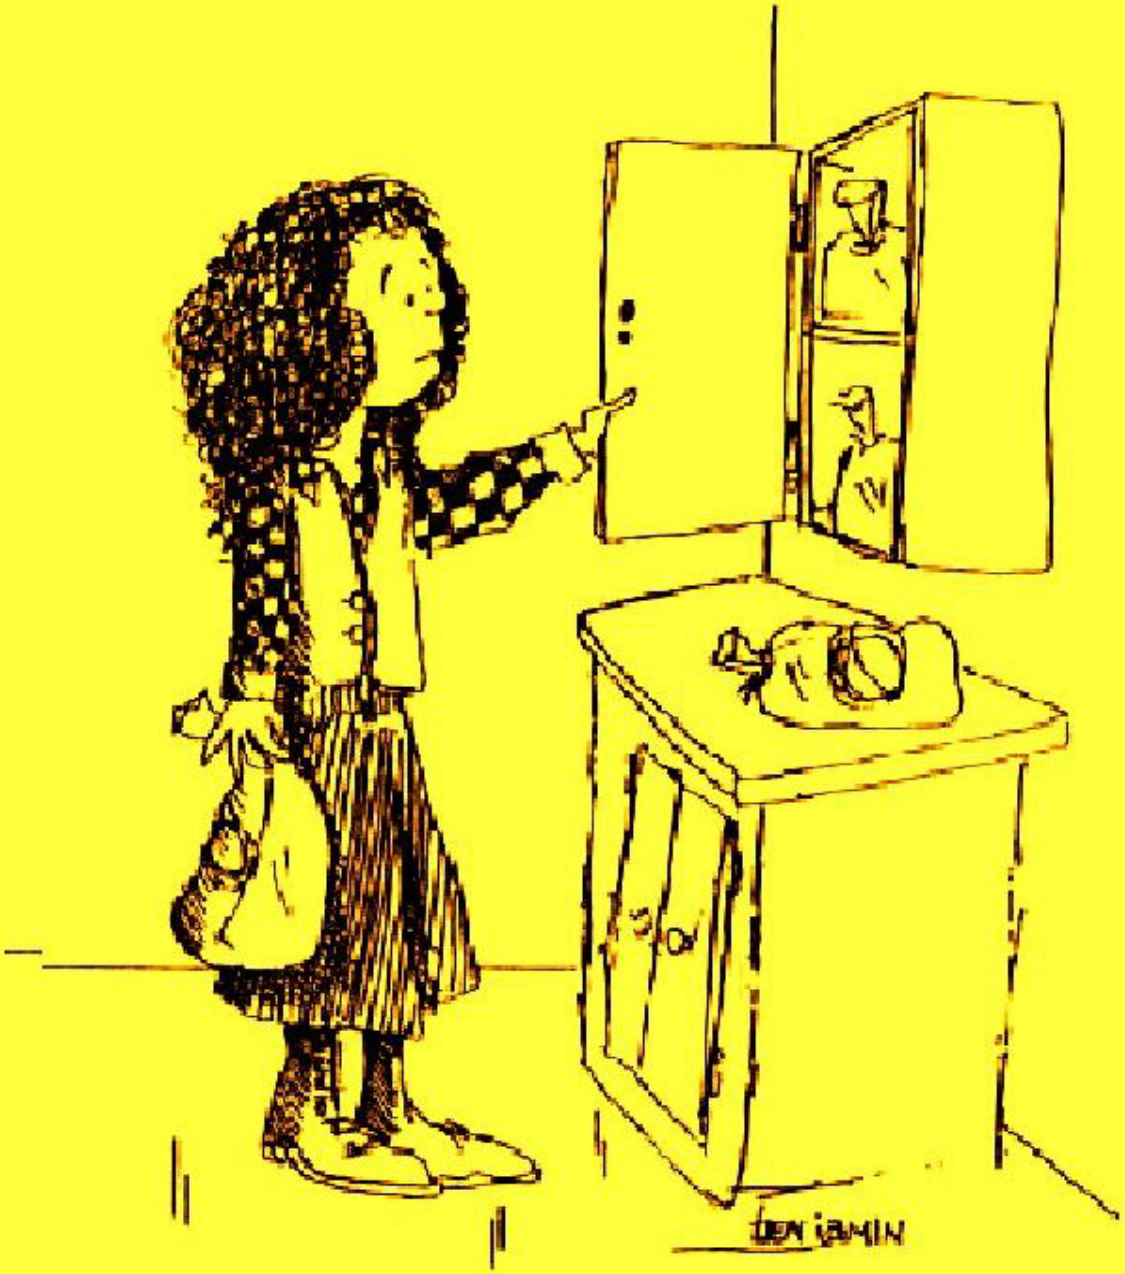

your chess set gets dusty.

When you live alone

there's nobody to
tell a nightmare to.

When you live alone

you have too much bread.

When you live alone

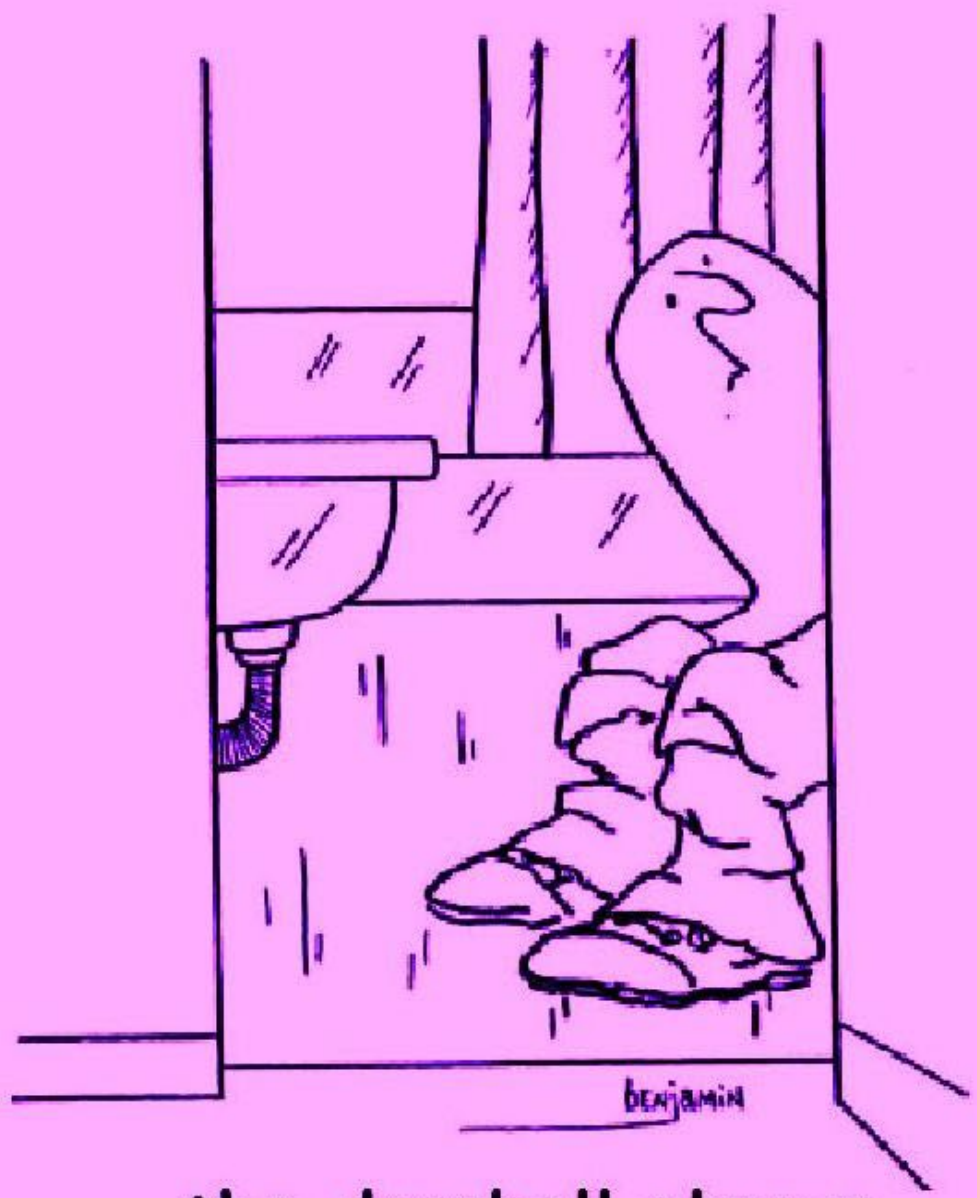

you accumlate coathangers or maybe they're having babies.

When you live alone

setting the table is a breeze.

When you live alone

the doorbell always rings at a bad time.

When you live alone

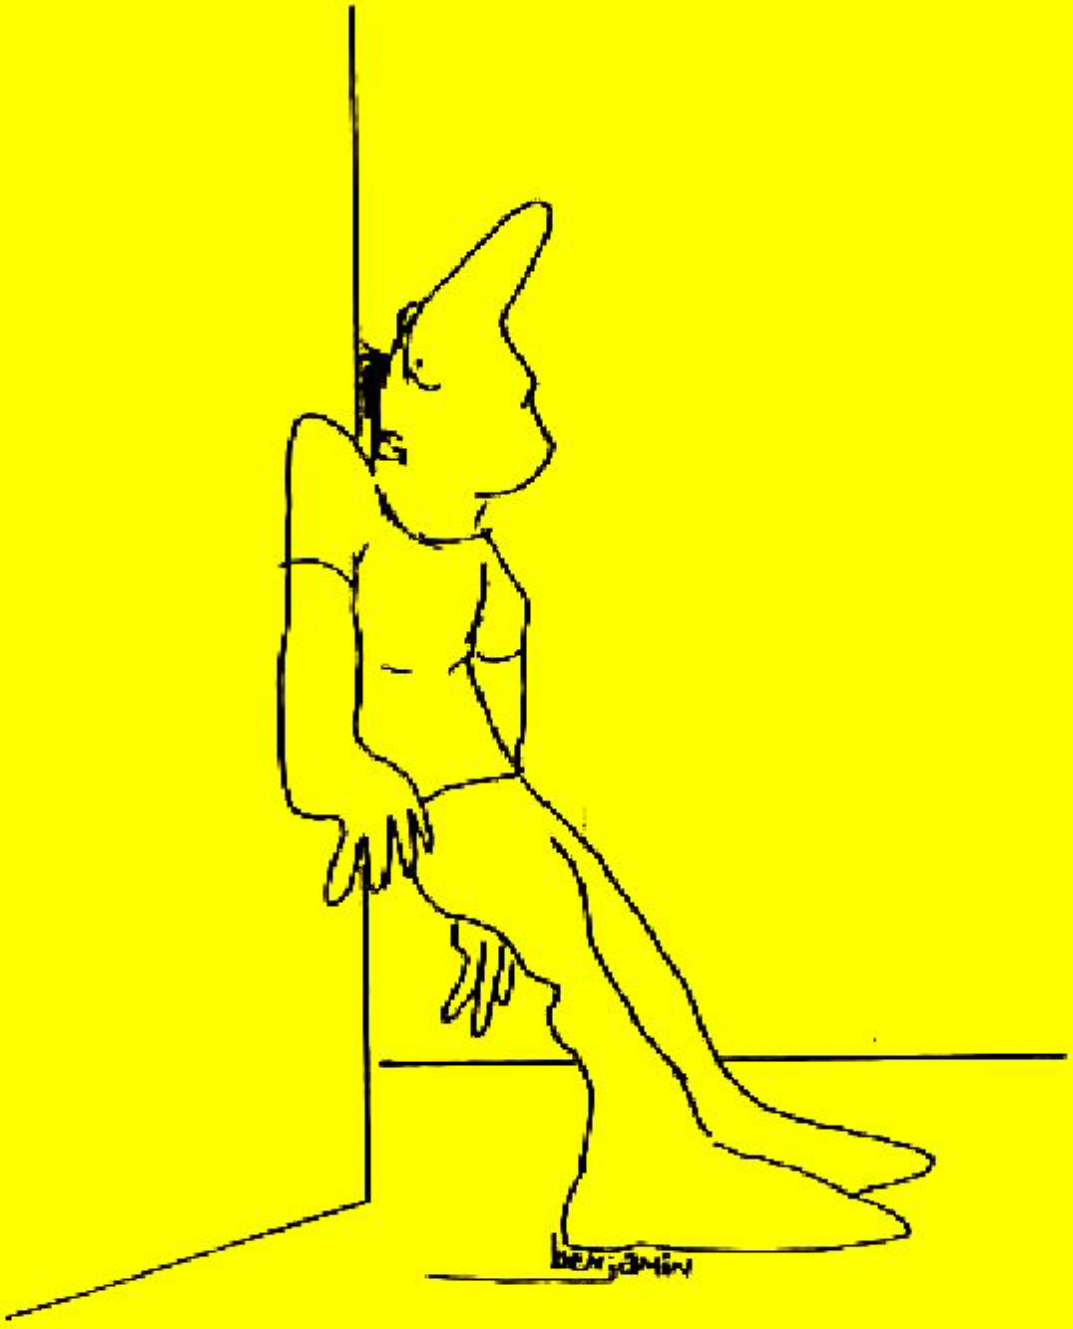

you eat your own cooking.

When you live alone

you fold your own sheets.

When you live alone

you rub your own back.

When you live alone

you take care of yourself.
